ADDITIONAL GIFTS

because one wedding dress can be repurposed in dozens of ways, we offer several other options in addition to your canvas art. We can add-on Christmas Ornaments, Keepsake Handkerchiefs, jewelry pieces made from your gown.

BLESSING BOXES

Another beautiful gift that can come from your wedding gown is an infant blessing gown for our children who never get to come home with us.

When my husband and I lost our son James in 2016 we had the blessing of forewarning to prepare for our brief time with him. Most families don't have that.

I am working with the chaplain program here at one of our local hospitals to create blessing boxes for those families who would like to have a bedside service, but haven't had the luxury of time to prepare for it.

If you allow me to make one or more gowns from what remains of your dress once your order is complete, I would be so grateful as would the families who will receive these gifts.
